Stage Matters.

Speaking of the stage reminds us of the recommendation given by the Lemoine Chilli Tonic by Mr. H. H. Quigley, manager of the Paducah opera house and one of Paducah's best known citizens. Listen to what he says: "Lemoine Chilli Tonic, Jackson, Mo., and New York—I take great pleasure in stating that I have used your Lemoine Chilli Tonic on several occasions with most beneficial results, its taste being so pleasant there is no difficulty in getting children to take it." Price, the smallest, 50 cents, while the amount of medicine in it is double most of similar preparations; is the most pleasant to take; most certain in results. Insist on getting it and take no substitutes. For sale by Miller & Wilson, Cape Girardeau and Ben Schwab, Dutchtown, Mo.

A Noted General.

Noted as a general tonic, Blood Purifier and appetizer Lemoine Chilli Tonic stands unrivaled and out-generaled by none. Read what the pastor of one of the largest churches in Paducah says: "I take pleasure in recommending Lemoine Chilli Tonic, prepared by the Lemoine Chilli Tonic Co. I have used it in my family with admirable results especially in case of continued chills with a child. Children take it without the least opposition." Sold by Miller & Wilson, Cape Girardeau and Ben Schwab, Dutchtown, Mo.

Horses for Sale.

I have for sale two good bay horses, one a six year old and the other four years old; one is 16 hands high and the other is 15 1/2 hands high. They are Lexington stock and fine animals. Well broken to harness and saddle, are gentle and kind.

Local Splinters.

The steamer Idlewild is laid up for repairs and the Bald Eagle is out in her place.

Married, April 4th, 1891, at the residence of Louis Henderson in this city, by Justice G. G. Kimmel, Albert Blanshet to Julia A. Bright.

One of these days we will have a big factory in this city operated by English capital.

Mr. J. N. Hartzell will soon have his stove factory complete and ready to begin work.

Alex. Ross is fixing up his property up on Harmony street preparatory to moving to the city.

Nicholas Wichterich was at the court house, as usual, Wednesday morning paying off city warrants.

Phil A. Hoch is still confined to his room, but, as we are pleased to state, improving and will soon be able to attend to the duties of his office.

The Sturdivant Bank cistern was cleaned out Thursday with the patent cistern cleaner. A bull frog with gold toe-nails was taken out with the cleanings.

A large force of hands are at work on Wm. Bahn's new building on Main street and soon another building will ornament that part of the city.

Nellie Biv got around the world pretty lively, but Cheatham's Tasteless Chilli Tonic will go it at a still better pace. Try a bottle when in need of a remedy for chills.

William Regehardt will begin work on the foundation for D. A. Glenn's new business house on Main street in a few days.

All our stonemasons, bricklayers and carpenters are busy. There is a rush of building going on all over town and there is no likelihood of a "let up" this year. We are surely enjoying a building boom.

The malarious summer will soon be here. Buy a bottle of Cheatham's Tasteless Chilli Tonic and fortify yourself against chills and fever. It is absolutely guaranteed to cure and pleasant to take.

Our list of subscribers still continues to increase right along. The Democrat is acknowledged by all to be the leading newspaper of Southeast Missouri and new patrons are coming in steadily and rapidly.

Mystic Cure for rheumatism and neuralgia, radically cures in 1 to 3 days, by removing the cause from the system. It will not fail. 75 cents. Sold by Rider & Wichterich, druggists, Cape Girardeau.

A petition for saloon license is being circulated in Jackson, and we understand that many people who a year ago refused to sign such a petition are attaching their names to it. The Cape Girardeau editor, as a matter of course, is howling.

This is the last month of the season for fresh oysters. Some dealers will continue to dish them up the first week in next month but they will be out of fashion then and the sales will be very small.

Why scratch your life away when a little Hartzell's Cure is applied and will cure the worst case of itch ever known? It not it costs you nothing. Price 25 cents.

Quite a large sum of money changed hands out at Jackson Wednesday in the way of bets on the result of the city elections in this city.

Our city elections are getting to be quite as interesting as the elections in the large cities.

The eighth wonder of the world was just discovered—Cheatham's Tasteless Chilli Tonic. It will prove a boon to humanity. It is the same tonic as that heretofore sold under the same name except that it is tasteless. Guaranteed to cure.

Farmers, you will find all kinds of seeds at the commission house of G. H. Wilson. He has the finest seed potatoes in the market, also grass seeds of all kinds. He makes a specialty of farmers' supplies. The celebrated St. Charles corn, the best corn in the world, is for sale at this place for planting purposes only. When you are in the city give Mr. Wilson a call.

Otto Frederick is getting the brick on the ground to build his large two-story dwelling house on Good Hope street. He will build a first-class house of modern style.

The First and Fourth wards gave majorities for the city of the third class. The people residing in these wards have good streets, built at the expense of the people of the whole city and now they want to force the people of the Second and Third wards to build their own streets.

At the school election there were three hundred and twenty-seven votes polled for Miss Mary N. Greene for County Commissioner and one hundred and forty-four for R. F. Lusk. George E. Chappell and William C. Bergmann were elected members of the School Board.

The braying of the Main street ass was heard in the land, but it frightened no voters.

Last year the people voted the city of the third class down and this year the City Council tried to force it on the people again. Free Americans cannot be driven, and the members of the Council will hereafter bear this in mind.

John Foley came in from Brownwood Monday to be here on the day of the city election.

The Main street Blasiator was full to running over Wednesday evening. He had been tapping that barrel in the big wholesale house too often and along in the evening he discovered all kinds of animals in the liquor.

Personal.

If man is the noblest work of God, where is the noblest work of the devil?

Hon. R. H. Whitlaw and family returned home last Saturday. Since Congress adjourned Mr. Whitlaw has been visiting relatives in Virginia and New York. He was welcomed home by his many friends who were truly glad to meet him and shake his hand.

E. F. Blomeyer is now keeping back. Mrs. Blomeyer and children are visiting relatives in Mississippi and they will be absent for two or three weeks.

Mr. Honck Asked to Extend.

We clip the following from the Globe-Democrat of Tuesday:

West Plains, Mo., April 6.—A large and enthusiastic meeting was held by the citizens of this place to-night. The object was to arouse public interest in the extension of the Honck road. Several speeches were made, and a committee of representative business men was appointed to go to Cape Girardeau and confer with Mr. Honck and find out, if possible, what he is willing to do in the matter and what he expects the people to do.

If the West Plains delegation happen to strike a crowd of the anti-Honck element when they arrive in this city they will return home disheartened. There are some men in this city who would rather see the city sink than see Mr. Honck prosper in the railroad business.

A Great Constitutional Debater.

Dr. Rider, the great constitutional debater of the City Council "big five," was at the polls Tuesday making a great noise because the Judges of Election refused to allow people to vote who have not been residents of the city twelve months. The Judges of Election gave Dr. Rider to understand that they did not take much stock in his constitutional knowledge. This excited the doctor and he left the polls in a hurry, but he remained away only a short time. He returned and told the Judges of Election that he had consulted a great constitutional lawyer on that subject and that lawyer said the Judges must let everybody vote. The lawyer he consulted is a Presbyterian preacher who is here assisting in a revival meeting now going on in the Presbyterian Church. He is not interpreting the constitution of the State of Missouri. He is preaching the gospel and trying to convert and make better men out of men like Dr. Rider.

A Cowardly Attack.

The clique organ's attack on Mr. Louis Honck is the meanest thing we have seen in print for a long time, but it fully expresses the sentiment of the two or three fellows who are fighting Mr. Honck and doing all they can to injure him in his efforts to advance the interests of the city of Cape Girardeau by giving us railroad connection with the outside world. The very men who are crying Mr. Honck down are lacking the dirty background which wrote the slanderous article that appeared in their organ. Monday evening and the article was written at their dictation. Too ignorant and too cowardly themselves to attack Mr. Honck openly they employ a vagabond who is not countenanced by decent men to do their dirty work.

People who know Louis Honck know that he takes less interest in the city elections in this city than any other man who owns property here. We have never heard him express an opinion as to a city election in all the years we have known him, and we doubt if he could to-day call the names of all the city officers. He is not dabbling in politics. He is in the railroad business—has all he can attend to in that business, and the men who are slandering him and attempting to pull him down to their level are looking higher than they will ever be able to climb. Louis Honck has done more for the city of Cape Girardeau in the last ten years than these three or four men who are his detractors will ever do were they to live here a thousand years. He has more brains than a steamboat load of such men and his name will be spoken in praise by the rising generation in this section of the State when the carcasses of some of his detractors are dangling on the devil's tongs in hades.

Mayor of Jackson.

The city election in Jackson resulted in the election of that old Democratic wheel-horse Col. G. C. Pepper as mayor of that beautiful little interior city. Col. Pepper is a dyed-in-the-wool Democrat and therefore he cannot be a good Christian, but he is a good average worldly man—in other words he is one of the boys—likes good company, good liquor, handsome women and fast horses. He will make Jackson a good Mayor.

Making Good Lean Pork.

The desire for good lean pork instead of so much fat has put many people to considering how the supply may be increased. One says to keep the young pigs as long as possible in pasture on grass and feed milk and bran and no corn. Feed them plenty of vegetables and apples with the bran. When the bodies or the frames are grown, give them oatmeal or rye ground entire, mixed with bran, putting twice as much bran as rye. Keep up the vegetable and apple diet and allow them during this time, to eat all the grass they will. A little corn may be fed towards the end. Pork made this way will have more lean, and will be tender and juicy. In this way there have been produced hams 75 per cent lean. The fat is something more than mere lard. It is meat, with substance and grain of meat. To get such pork is worth trying for, as it is in demand.

THE CITY ELECTION.

A Large Vote Polled and the Third Class Measure Badly Beaten.

The city election which took place yesterday, will long be remembered as one of the most interesting and hotly contested elections in the history of the city. The contest was not as to who should be elected to fill the various offices. Of course the different candidates had their friends and supporters who worked hard for their choice, but the issue before the people was whether or not the city should abandon its present charter and adopt the statute charter of a city of the third class. The advocates of the city of the third class worked early and late and were lavish with their money, but the people were not ready to give up a charter under which they have lived for years and adopt a charter they know nothing about, and the result was the proposed new charter was voted down by a large majority.

The Evening Before the Election.

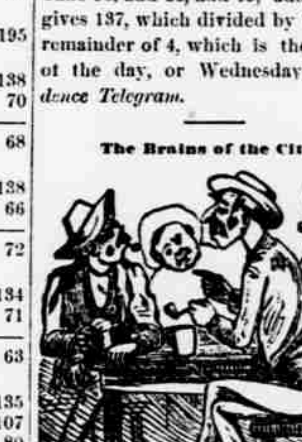

A down-town crowd discussing the city of the third class.

To Tell the Day of the Week of Any Date.

Take the last two figures of the year, add a quarter of this, disregarding the fraction; add the date of month and to this add the figure in the following list, one figure standing for each month: 3-6-6-2-4-0-2-5-1-3-6-1. Divide the sum by seven and the remainder will give the number of the day in the week, and when there is no remainder the day will be Saturday.

As an example take March 19, 1890. Take 90, add 22, add 19, add 6. This gives 137, which divided by 7 leaves a remainder of 4, which is the number of the day, or Wednesday.—Providence Telegram.

The Brains of the City.

Since it is claimed that the First and Fourth wards furnish the brains to run the city government we consider an act of justice for us to give our readers a picture of a group of these brainy fellows as above at a counsel of war against the best interests of the city, in one of their usual places of meeting.

Boggett-Fraser.

Married, at the residence of Miss Ella Wall, sister to the bride, by the Rev. John W. Primrose, Wednesday evening, April 8th, 1891, Mr. C. L. Boggett, of St. Louis, to Mary W. Fraser of this city.

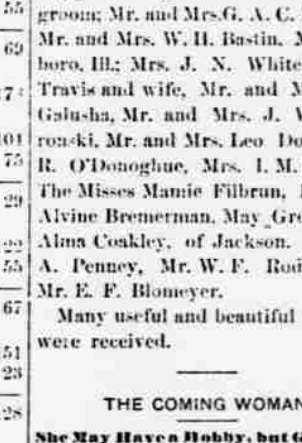

The happy couple after visiting friends and relatives at Morphyboro, Jonesboro and Cobden, Illinois, will depart for St. Louis where they will make their future home.

Those present were: Mrs. John Fay, St. Louis; Mr. O. P. Boggett, Jonesboro, Ill.; Cora E. and Allen C. Boggett, daughter and son of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. G. A. C. Rodeker, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Basin, Morphyboro, Ill.; Mrs. J. N. Whitlaw, Dr. Travis and wife, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Gish, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Garrow, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Doyle, Mrs. R. O'Donoghue, Mrs. L. M. Stafford, Misses Mammie Filburn, Ella Gill, Alvine Bremerman, May Greene, and Alma Cookley, of Jackson, Mr. W. A. Penney, Mr. W. F. Rodney and Mr. E. F. Blomeyer.

Many useful and beautiful presents were received.

THE COMING WOMAN.

She May Haven Flabby, but God Bless Her Anyway.

The coming woman, who and what is she to be? So long has she been heralded and so patiently invoked that trying to reduce her to a personality is like trying to substantiate a dream. Is the coming woman to be a reformer? Is she to be a shrill-tongued and muscled? Is she to be a believer in the supremacy of faith over patient and plodding works? Will she seek to pray the skins off her potatoes rather than use the means provided—a deft hand and a sharp knife? Will she be aesthetic, lazy and lunatic? Or one of the stoical kind who believes in gritting her teeth and taking life as it comes? Will she be a perpetuation of the father-head type, as unfitted for the earnest uses of life as a butterfly for a skink? Whoever and what ever she may be, God bless her on her way to take her place as the representative woman of the age to come, by her it she be a hard worker and thoroughly alive, even in a mistaken cause, than if she be content to occupy a pedestal and pose for adulation. We have more respect, the most of us, for the child who makes a big racket and keeps things stirring than for the child who does nothing but sit quiet and suck its thumbs. On earth we have work to do, and however the methods of going about it may vary, the one who sweeps away the largest number of cobwebs and raises the greatest amount of dust in a good cause will receive a nobler reward than the slothful soul who sits down in the midst of the disorder and does nothing toward tidying up things.

CITY GOVERNMENT.

Proceedings of the City Council in Regular Session.

MONDAY EVENING, APR. 6, 1891.
